QUIRKY SCIENCE
(13 X 30') - HD

Science/History

For most, science is about discoveries by PhDs in lab coats. But do we ever think or imagine that to get to where we are today, science sometimes has taken very quirky directions? This is a series that explores just exactly where science went awry and led to new discoveries and inventions. For example, how did trying to find a cure for malaria lead to air conditioning? What did the development of radar have to do with the microwave oven? Or what does surviving a nuclear war have to do with the Internet?

Unholy Sex explores sexual predation by Men of God. In a tour of the world's largest faiths, Islam, Judaism, Evangelical Christianity and Buddhism, we document the seduction of the young, the exploitation of who yearn for guidance, the corruption of the lost, and the horror of religious rape for political ends. These are tales of the Holy Word twisted by venal men for the satisfaction of base desires. They'll have their victims at any cost, using money, persuasion, power, and ultimately, their own twisted version of God's approval, to justify their deeds.
